

MEDIUM TERM VOLUNTARY SERVICE PROJECTS (MTV)

SECTION I: INTRODUCTION

UVIKIUTA is a vibrant development Organization that values volunteerism as a tool for sustainable development. The organization was established in 1983 to respond to the needs of young women and men to raise their living standards through developing and enhancing social and economic capacities. Our goal is to build sustainable and self-reliant communities through holistic experience that broaden minds, expand horizons and empower youth and volunteers to realize their full potential as productive, responsible and caring citizens.

UVIKIUTA-Tanzania is a long-term partner of Service Civil International (SCI), Alliance of European Voluntary Service (Alliance) and other alike National, Regional and International voluntary service Organizations. We are also one of the founder members the Eastern African voluntary service Network (EAVS-Network), formally EAWA and currently chairing the Network.

SECTION III: MEDIUM TERM VOLUNTEER PROJECTS DESCRIPTION

Medium term volunteer projects involve volunteers from different social and cultural backgrounds aiming to share life together while providing service to the community. The projects connect people from around the world with local projects and communities. They offer a powerful vision built on our belief that volunteers have a vital role to play in development and in building a more just and sustainable world society. Voluntary service projects offer an opportunity to work as a volunteer, experience different cultures, meet people from different countries, learn new or improve skills, take part in peace making and hands-on on various community-based development projects. Volunteer position is an exceptional option for people to gain experience in service projects and an increased understanding in world issues.
