PROFIL

Indonesia International Work Camp of PKBI Perkumpulan Keluarga Berencana—Eng: Indonesia Planned Parenthood Association (IIWC of PKBI) is the first international voluntary services organization in Indonesia founded since 1999. We existed and actively involved in promoting global issues which rise from local potential. We believe that every community has potential to be developed by their strength. The presence of volunteers in community will be a trigger to raising local potential and spreading the spirit of volunteerism.

In the other hand, PKBI as our mother organization has 30 branch offices in all over Indonesia. Collaborated with PKBI's branch, we develop 10 project sites out of 5 provinces in Indonesia.

Vision:

“Community empowerment, To Improve Quality of Life”

Missions:

1. Community empowerment by maximizing local potentials
2. Improving Youth involvement as agent of changes toward society
3. Spreading volunteerism spirit

Values

1. Volunteerism
2. Pioneering
3. Independency
4. Professionalism

General Information

a.) Cancellation

• Please inform to IIWC Indonesia at least 30 Days before your work start. Cancellation it is really harm full to our project. Because, most of projects fund come from international participation fee. It would be so be unfair if we keep your place blocked and therefore not giving a chance to other motivated volunteers who really want to come to Indonesia.

we keep your place blocked and therefore not giving a chance to other motivated volunteers who really want to come to Indonesia.

b. Financial Policy

Participation fee of LMTV Projects should be paid upon arrival. The participation fee is covering expenses as follow:

- Foods
- Accommodation
- Local transport for project

For those who by any reason could not pay participant fee, we do not give approval for them to join our program.

c. General Requirement

1. Volunteers should be 18 years old or older. For those who under 18 years old, we need parent/guardian permit letter.
2. All volunteers will have a three days of On Arrival Training (OAT), this training is compulsory. Volunteer will have class about Indonesian Custom, as well as the project that will run by them. This training also will help volunteer to understand what an international voluntary service is.
3. We do not accept volunteers individually, volunteer should apply through our partner organization, or by any institution that officially being our partner and guarantee the volunteer.
4. We expect all volunteers to have read and understood the info sheet before arrive in Indonesia. Be in time and stay the entire length of the work.

5. Volunteer will have 1-2 days off in each week, depend on their schedule.
6. English is the official language of the project. But, most of our local partners are not capable to speak in English. Basic Indonesian language skill will be appreciated. Volunteers should make the effort in trying to communicate in basic Indonesian or other ways of communicating with local people (work, pictures, gestures, etc.) If you will try, you will be amazed how quick you will learn basic Bahasa Indonesia!
7. Volunteer are free to choose the date for arrival and departure, but please be sure it is workdays (Monday to Friday). Our office will be close in weekend (Saturday-Sunday) and national holiday. If you arrive in weekend or off day, you are free to stay in our office but only the security guy who stay in office, please confirm to us earlier.
8. Volunteers will need to bring a sleeping bag and air mattress, but please read the info sheet first, because some of our project are provide bed.
9. Our project mostly are self-cooking, self-cleaning and washing, but some of them are cooked by our local partner. Please mention your specific diet on your confirmation slip.
10. Realize that the living conditions in Indonesia is different than at home (no warm water, not clean, no air-conditioning, not easy access to international phone or internet, not easy transportation all the times, no soft beds, bugs, mosquitoes, different food etc.)
11. All volunteers should understand the aims of the volunteering activities and realize that learning about the Indonesian way and the social contact is more important than the manual work.
12. We expect all the volunteers to be open minded, leave prejudice behind and show initiative.
13. The people are quite religious Islamic here, behavior and dress should be noticed the local culture (No tank tops, knees should be covered, no alcohol, no piercing, tattoo must be covered, not smoking in front of kids).
14. Flexibility is expected from everybody. Know that Indonesian way of life and work is less stressed and should always be fun, no matter how hard the work is!
15. The schedule might be changed throughout the work, depending on conditions and situation. So bring some flexibility and stay relaxed and you will avoid a lot of stress and frustration for yourself. Volunteer should arrange their own schedule by the help of their peer volunteer and local partner.
16. There will be a peer volunteer that will assisting International volunteer during the project. They might not stay in project site, all the work might be done only by volunteers and local community.

17. Creativity and ideas for the work, discussions, the project site, excursions and free time are expected to come from all the volunteers and local partners. Share your thoughts and ideas!

Our Program

a. Volunteering in Indonesia

Indonesia lies between latitudes 11°S and 6°N, and longitudes 95°E and 141°E. Due to this country located on equator line, Indonesia has a tropical climate with wet and dry seasons. Average annual rainfall in the lowlands varies from 1,780–3,175 millimeters (70–125 in), and up to 6,100 millimeters (240 in) in mountainous regions. Humidity is quite high, averaging about 80%. The average daily temperature range of Jakarta and another big city is 26–35 °C, and 18-25°C for the mountainous area.

The Republic of Indonesia is the largest archipelago in the world comprising 13,466 large and small tropical islands fringed with white sandy beaches, many still uninhabited and a number even still unnamed. Indonesia has a total population of more than 215 million people from more than 200 ethnic groups. Culturally, Indonesia fascinates with her rich diversity of ancient temples, music, ranging from the traditional to modern pop, dances, rituals and ways of life, changing from island to island, from region to region. Yet everywhere, volunteer feels welcomed with that warm, gracious innate friendliness of the Indonesian people that is not easily forgotten.

b. Long Middle Term Voluntary

~~Long and~~ Middle Term Volunteering is an international voluntary services that deposits 1-3 month (middle term) ~~or 4-6 month (long term)~~ with special theme for sustainable project. This activity is an individual project which each project contain 1 up to 3 volunteers. LMTV incoming program will support our mostly our regular activity in each project site. They will collaborate really close with local community as well as local volunteers to organize the project during their stay Indonesia.

Volunteer will stay either in rented volunteer house, or stay with a local family. This is aimed to collaborate with partners or local communities with the main purpose of exchanging experiences, culture, and mutual benefit between the relevant parties (See more: <https://iiwc-pkbi.org/volunteering-in-indonesia/lmtv/>)
